

FRC Weekly Report

Jan 6– 12, 2014

By: Asad Kamal

Bajaur Agency

On 6th January 2014, authorities finalized arrangements to provide security to health workers to vaccinate more than 300,000 children in Bajaur and Mohmand agencies.

On 6th January 2014, Secretary General Jamat-e-Islami Bajaur Qari Abdul Majeed demanded that the federal government hold local bodies' elections in tribal regions earlier than the provinces so that the tribesmen could move towards development and prosperity.

On 11th January 2014, Tribal Union of Journalists (TUJ) condemned threats hurled at journalists by the administration and demanded the governor to take note of the matter.

Mohmand Agency

On 6th January 2014, elders of Khwezai tribe called for the revival of the jirga system to resolve the disputes in line with the tribal customs and traditions.

On 10th January 2014, PHC sought explanation from Khyber Pakhtunkhwa governor and the additional chief secretary of Fata Secretariat regarding the supervision of the internment centre of Ghalanai, Mohmand Agency, where an interned person had died around 11 months ago.

Khyber Agency

On 6th January 2014, up to 200 Khassadar and Levies personnel have been trained to administer polio drops to children in the Landikotal tehsil

On 7th January 2014, as the polio vaccination drives kicked off in Khyber, Mohmand and Bajaur agencies, Governor Shaukatullah Khan did his part and administered the vaccine to children at Jamrud Civil Hospital.

On 7th January 2014, nine people, three children among them, were killed when a live artillery shell exploded in a house in Miangano Kalay village in Tirah Valley. Some villagers had found the shell in the field and taken it to the house. According to neighbours, they were trying to split it with a saw when it exploded. The explosion also injured 10 villagers who had gathered at the place.

On 10th January 2014, Khyber Agency political administration has chalked out a special security plan and declared eight areas in Landikotal sensitive for the three days polio vaccination campaign commencing from January 11, 2014.

On 12th January 2014, three-day anti-polio campaign, delayed twice, was launched amid tight security arrangements in two tehsils of Khyber Agency.

Orakzai Agency

On 8th January 2014, house of an official of the Orakzai Levies was damaged in the blast at a shop near the house in Bahadur Banda in Hangu.

On 12th January 2014, a body of an unidentified person was found dumped at Dargai village.

On 12th January 2014, a teenaged girl sustained injuries when explosive devices planted near a house at Merobak village in Orakzai Agency went off.

Kurram Agency

On 8th January 2014, five persons including a child sustained injuries in a bomb blast in Sadda town.

On 8th January 2014, tribal elders and traders have demanded of the government to declare Thall-Parachinar Road as transit route between Pakistan and Afghanistan to explore commercial and employment opportunities in the under-developed region

On 12th January 2014, internally displaced persons from Orakzai and Kurram agencies held protest demonstrations at different places here and demanded of the authorities to provide relief items to them

North Waziristan Agency

On 7th January 2014, two persons were shot and fatally injured by security forces in Miramshah, North Waziristan Agency during a curfew.

On 9th January 2014, the banned Tehrik-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) has tasked its field commanders to target the federal cabinet members and high-ranking officers of the armed forces

South Waziristan Agency

On 10th January 2014, a security official was injured when their vehicle was attacked by an improvised explosive device (IED) on the northern side of the WANA Bazar.

KPK

On 6th January 2014, in yet another major setback to the polio programme, the Fata Secretariat lands in trouble for publicising fatwa (religious decree) of Darul Uloom Haqqania, Akora Khattak, in the local media through paid advertisements without the permission and knowledge of its administrator Maulana Samiul Haq.

On 6th January 2014, reports suggested that In Khyber Pakhtunkhwa because of terrorism, kidnappings and other law and order incidents and unemployment, migration of people from Tribal areas in year 2013, mental and psychological disorders disease were on the rise in Khyber Pakhtunkhwa

On 6th January 2014, The Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf sit-in against NATO supply and drone attacks continued for 44th consecutive day.

On 7th January 2014, provincial leadership of the Pakistan Peoples Party (PPP) said they will not be allying with the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) for the local bodies polls.

On 7th January 2014, an incident took place at Regi Model Town where a police van was targeted by a roadside improvised explosive device (IED). an FC personnel, was killed in the blast while two policemen identified as Manzoor and Azam and an FC constable sustained injuries.

On 7th January 2014, a student died while thwarting a suicide attack targeting his school in Hangu district of KPK.

On 8th January 2014, six men were found slaughtered inside a shrine in Gulshan-e-Maymar (Karachi) in an attack claimed by the Pakistani Taliban as a 'punishment' for paying homage to saints.

On 8th January 2014, a distant relative of ex-chief minister Ameer Haider Hoti and his former adviser were arrested by the National Accountability Bureau (NAB) in a famous weapons procurement scam.

On 8th January 2014, unidentified gunmen shot dead a former Naib Nazim of Union Council (UC) Shahdara in Mingora City of Swat district.

On 8th January 2014, unknown armed persons shot dead manager of a bank in Asamai Gate area Peshawar.

On 8th January 2014, the book: `Biting the Silver Bullet`: Role of Pakistani State Institutions in War on Terror was launched in honor of the people and families of those effected in the war on terror.

On 10th January 2014, senior police officer Chaudhry Aslam, who led the operations against militants and extremists in Karachi for years, was killed when a powerful IED blast destroyed his vehicle on the Lyari Expressway. TTP has claimed responsibility for the attack

On 10th January 2014, TTP spokesman Shahidullah Shahid hinted at getting back to the negotiating table with the federal government

On 10th January 2014, tribal elders, public representatives, police officials, teachers, students and a number of people thronged the house of 14-year-old Aitezaz to attend his Rasm-e-Qul.

On 10th January 2014, police recovered a school teacher and arrested his four kidnappers during a raid in the Noorani village in Doaba area.

On 10th January 2014, Peshawar High Court (PHC) Chief Justice Dost Muhammad Khan said that the law-enforcement agencies should deal with militants in their custody as per the law.

On 10th January 2014, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa Inspector General of Police (IGP) Nasir Khan Durrani has recommended the name of shaheed school student Aitezaz Hassan to the provincial govt for a civil award.

On 10th January 2014, three members of a family including woman and a child were killed when unidentified gunmen forced their entry into a house in the limits of Saddar Police Station district Hangu.

On 10th January 2014, Tehreek-i-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) claimed responsibility of the attack that killed SP Chaudhry Aslam and two other policemen in Karachi.

On 10th January 2014, a man was killed and another injured when unknown gunmen opened fire at them Pajagi Road of Peshawar.

On 10th January 2014, one person was killed in Khulay village in the limits of Sardhery Police station district Charsadda.

On 11th January 2014, an alleged militant was killed when armed men attacked a police party near a checkpoint on the boundary with Khyber Agency.

On 11th January 2014, Prime Minister Nawaz Sharif approved the country's highest civil award Sitara-e-Shujaat for a student Shaheed Aitezaz Hussain.

On 11th January 2014, gunmen have shot to death two workers at a small Sufi Muslim shrine in Mardan.

On 11th January 2014, top leadership of Samiul Haq's JUI has made first formal contact with Taliban Shura (council), playing as a facilitator in government's bid to secure peace through talks with the militants.

On 11th January 2014, health workers in part of a troubled Pakistani tribal region refused to participate in a polio vaccination campaign because of security threats.

On 11th January 2014, ruling out any negative impact of the ongoing blockade of Nato supplies through Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, US Ambassador to Pakistan Richard Olson said his country had many options to flow goods out of Afghanistan.

On 12th January 2014, Chief of Army Staff (COAS) General Raheel Sharif has said Aitzaz Hasan Bangash is a national hero and his sacrifice cannot be forgotten.

On 12th January 2014, Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) protest camp that has closed Nato shipment through Torkham entered 50th day.

On 12th January 2014, Some 84 security personnel, including five sub-inspector, performing duty at the Jalozai and another camp set up for the internally displaced persons in Hangu have been fired owing to the paucity of funds.

On 12th January 2014, anti-terrorism court here convicted three persons for killing a minor boy after kidnapping him for ransom and sentenced them to life imprisonment on two counts.

On 12th January 2014, a case has been registered at the PIB Colony police station against the Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) chief Maulana Fazlullah and spokesman Shahidullah Shahid for the bombing which claimed the life of CID SP Chaudhry Aslam.